January 2006

Dear NETA Certified Group Exercise Instructor:

Enclosed you will find your Recertification Handbook and Application. The packet includes important information about recertification, guidelines for using this packet, and changes to recertification requirements.

Please note that the NETA website (www.netafit.org) has the most up-to-date information on recertification as well as many other key topics.

The website makes it easy to stay current with continuing education workshop and home study opportunities.

The purpose of the NETA-GECB recertification policy is to enhance the continuing competence of certificants.

We choose a system that requires a minimum of 20 continuing education credits (CECs) and maintenance of current CPR certification. CECs must be obtained from American Council on Exercise approved or NETA courses. We believe this system provides certificants with an incentive to pursue a program of individual professional development with courses that have already met minimum quality criteria. These courses enhance continuing competence by: 1) reinforcing basic principles; 2) communicating information about changes in the knowledge, skills and techniques that are associated with best practices; and 3) educating certificants about future trends. Additionally, requiring current CPR certification ensures that certificants have maintained competence in this important skill. Our Board is satisfied that these requirements provide reasonable evidence of maintaining an acceptable level of continuing competence without placing an undue burden on the certificant.

In addition, NETA-GECB noted that a 2004 NOCA poll question indicated that 51% of the respondents relied primarily on continuing education to recertify candidates. Until we find evidence of a more effective method or promoting continuing competence, we will rely upon this system embraced by our peers and most certification programs in other disciplines. The NETA-GECB will periodically review this policy to ensure that our recertification procedure contributes to the desired outcome.

NETA Certified Group Exercise Instructors must recertify every two (2) years. This ensures that NETA-GECB certified professionals are current with best practice guidelines and the specific knowledge, skills, and abilities described in the most recent practice analysis.

Recertification Process

- To renew your certification, you must complete a minimum of 20 Continuing Education Credits (CECs) between the date your certification begins and its expiration. There is a 6 month grace period in which to complete your recertification should you need an extension beyond your expiration date. Higher renewal fees apply to all recertification applications past the renewal date. If your certification expires beyond the 6 month grace period, you must retake the GE Certification exam.
- In addition to NETA approved CECs, NETA-GECB accepts any job related course CECs that are American Council on Exercise approved. (American Council on Exercise CEC credits are preceded by a decimal point. 3 NETA CECs are equivalent to .3 American Council on Exercise CECs).
- Job related health fitness college courses can be evaluated on a petition basis for CEC approval by submitting a course outline and transcript to NETA.
- If more than the minimum required (20) CECs are accumulated within a 2-year certification period, those additional credits are not applicable towards a future certificate.
- To insure that you maintain a current certification, please mail your renewal application, fee, and copy of current CPR card (front and back) two months prior to your expiration date. Please send all of the renewal information in one packet. Do not send forms singularly. If you have a change in your mailing address, or if you receive duplicate brochures at the same address, please call NETA at (763) 545-2505
- The NETA-GECB STAFF accepts recertification applications up to 90 days before certification expiration. The designated staff person reviews all packets utilizing the checklist below:
 - ✓ Is the application complete?
 - ✓ Is correct payment included?
 - ✓ Does the applicant report the correct number of CECs?
 - ✓ Are the CECs supplied from the list of approved providers?
 - ✓ Does the applicant supply a copy of a current emergency cardiac care (CPR) certification?
 - ✓ Does the applicant supply verification of CEC completion?
 - ✓ Is there a petition included in the application packet?
- All continuing education activities must provide above entry-level knowledge, skills and abilities and fall within the performance domains as defined by the most recent Job Analysis Study.

- Once the candidate recertification application packet is reviewed for content, the application is then added into the applicants account. The Recertification Coordinator then deposits the payment and prints out:
 - ✓ Congratulations letter to candidate informing them of the recertification application acceptance;
 - ✓ Current certification;
 - ✓ New recertification packet.
- If applications are incomplete, applicant does not have the correct number of CECs, CECs are not from our accepted provider list or applications do not contain the proper payment amounts, the applicant will receive a phone call and a letter via mail from the NETA-GECB informing them of their status. Applicants are given 30 days to re-apply before they are assessed a late charge.
- Applicants who did not obtain CECs from an approved provider will be sent a course petition application.
- Late recertification applications are accepted up to 6 months post expiration and applicants are assessed a late fee. All those past the 6 month grace period shall no longer hold valid certification through the NETA-GECB and must complete the testing process again to obtain the NETA-CGEI credential.

Continuing Education Course Petition Process

Certified professionals who do not receive their continuing education (CECs) from the NETA-GECB approved provider list are required to submit a petition application (see page 10) for each course they want considered for CECs. A petition fee is assessed for each course being petitioned.

Each petition must include:

- Copy of the course materials (workshop/lecture) or if a home study, copy of the table of contents, outline of the course and course objectives.
- Complete course instructor resume including educational history
- Certificate of course/workshop completion

NETA-GECB Petition Review Process:

- The petition process takes 7-14 days upon receipt. Once received, petition applications are reviewed for the following:
 - ✓ Is the application complete with all documentation necessary?
 - ✓ Is the correct payment included?
- After initial review, the Recertification Coordinator reviews the course information to evaluate whether or not the course represents the relevant knowledge, skills and abilities as provided by the most recent Job Analysis Study.
- Course instructors are reviewed as well. Course instructors must have at least one of the following for their course to be accepted:
 - ✓ Bachelor's degree; or
 - ✓ Current nationally recognized fitness related certification in good standing.

- Petitioned courses that do not meet the standards as stated above will not be accepted for recertification.

Notice of Acceptance or Denial:

NETA-GECB certified professionals will be contacted via phone and postal letter announcing the outcome of the petition. Professionals whose petitioned courses are accepted will have their application processed and information added to their accounts. NETA-GECB certified professionals who are denied will be granted 30 days without late fee to acquire the necessary CECs for recertification.

Recertification CEC Petition Denial Appeals Process

Candidates who are denied a petitioned continuing education course application and wish to appeal may do so within 30 days of notice of a denied application. Those who appeal a denied application will be assessed an administrative fee. Appeals are forwarded to the Certification Director and Certification Board Appeals Committee. This process requires 60 days during which the applicant appealing the decision is granted a grace period and is not assessed a late fee for recertification. Each course may only be appealed once.

The Certification Board Appeals Committee shall be comprised of the three certified professional representatives and shall meet as deemed necessary either by phone, person or electronic means. Each committee member shall receive a copy of the appeals application, petition application, and administrative review form. Once a decision is determined, the applicant will be notified via phone and mail. All decisions handed down from the Appeals Committee are deemed final and cannot be appealed again.

Certification Board Appeals Committee

The committee shall be comprised of three certified professional Representatives, each representative of the individual educational tracks. Upon meeting, the Appeals Committee shall review the appeals application and all relevant material for consideration. Once reviewed, a majority vote in favor of acceptance is required for approval. If a majority vote does not exist, the appeal will be denied. All decisions handed down from the Certification Advisory Committee Appeals Committee are deemed final.
